Gold Sustainable Food Places and their exceptional activity

When applying for a Gold SFP Award, places describe and evidence two 'Areas of Exceptional Activity' which illustrate their cross-sector, high-impact work. This graphic maps the two areas explored by each Gold Awardee

Brighton & Hove Gold Award 2020

- Tackling Food Poverty & Food Inequality
- Veg Cities: Taking a citywide approach to help people eat more veg

Bristol Gold Award 2021

- Growing the Good Food Movement
- Towards Zero Food Waste

Cambridge Gold Award 2024

- Action on Climate & Biodiversity
- From food insecurity to food justice

Cardiff Gold Award 2024

- An active, inclusive and widespread Good Food Movement
- A good meal for everyone, everyday

Middlesbrough Gold Award 2024

- Reducing undernutrition
- Tackling Food Insecurity

Aberdeen Gold Award 2025

- Food Ladders: a dignified approach to food access
- Food Citzenship: building skilled, engaged communities

Oxfordshire Gold Award 2026

- Participatory Process: Embedding Food across boundaries
- OxFarmtoFork - a Model for local, sustainable procurement

North Lancashire Gold Award 2026

- Building a more sustainable and just local food economy from the ground up
- Lancaster District Food Justice Partnership: a Food Ladders approach

More details on each application can be found at sustainablefoodplaces.org/awards